SUMMARY

I was born in Porto Alegre, Brazil. I have been studying Physics since 2017, started to research on Particle Physics in 2019 through Geant4 simulations. My most recent my studies are the investigation of the performance of the ALPIDE chip for low energies and the validation of electron energy deposition for Geant4 versions from 9.6 to 11.0. Due to my research, I have experience with Project O^2 , Geant4 and data analysis with Python and ROOT.
